

Upstate SC YBOA Youth Basketball League

Winter Basketball League

The Potential Basketball League is a great alternative to church basketball. Our league is for players looking for professional training combined with competitive games. With our first class facility and professional coaching staff, we teach players team strategy, individual fundamentals, and improve as overall athletes. Players in the YBOA Basketball League don't just play in games - they learn how to play the game.

During the winter season, players will participate in one training session and one game per week. All games and practices will be on week nights. The program also includes a season ending tournament.
